

Communities in the Discipline
Learning Community &
Living-Learning Community

Learning
Communities
Learn together with US

Communities in the Discipline
Learning Community &
Living-Learning Community

Learning
Communities
Learn together with US

In a learning community, you'll learn with friends and thrive at UNCG!

Learning Communities at UNCG feature integrated learning.

All communities include two to three courses that are integrated for deeper learning. This means that learning community students will be enrolled in shared courses that integrate assignments across multiple courses. For the student, you begin to see how courses and disciplines are interwoven across programs and majors.

Communities in the Discipline Learning Community & Living-Learning Community

The Communities in the Discipline Learning Community is designed for first-year students who would like to explore specific disciplinary areas. These communities focus on creating direct pathways to degrees, while allowing students to still explore potential disciplinary interests.

Tracks to include:

- African American Studies
- Biological Sciences
- Health & Human Services
- The Humanities
- Nursing
- PreHealth Studies
- Public Relations/Communication Studies
- The Social Sciences

This learning community is open to students living on-campus or commuting to campus.

Option to live together in Moore Strong Halls

Required Courses:

Fall One general education course within disciplinary area
ISL 101: Collaboration, Connection & Inquiry

For more information and an application visit:
learningcommunities.uncg.edu

In a learning community, you'll learn with friends and thrive at UNCG!

Learning Communities at UNCG feature integrated learning.

All communities include two to three courses that are integrated for deeper learning. This means that learning community students will be enrolled in shared courses that integrate assignments across multiple courses. For the student, you begin to see how courses and disciplines are interwoven across programs and majors.

Communities in the Discipline Learning Community & Living-Learning Community

The Communities in the Discipline Learning Community is designed for first-year students who would like to explore specific disciplinary areas. These communities focus on creating direct pathways to degrees, while allowing students to still explore potential disciplinary interests.

Tracks to include:

- African American Studies
- Biological Sciences
- Health & Human Services
- The Humanities
- Nursing
- PreHealth Studies
- Public Relations/Communication Studies
- The Social Sciences

This learning community is open to students living on-campus or commuting to campus.

Option to live together in Moore Strong Halls

Required Courses:

Fall One general education course within disciplinary area
ISL 101: Collaboration, Connection & Inquiry

For more information and an application visit:
learningcommunities.uncg.edu