In a learning community, you'll learn with friends and thrive at UNCG!

Learning Communities at UNCG feature integrated learning.

All communities include two to three courses that are integrated for deeper learning. This means that learning community students will be enrolled in shared courses that integrate assignments across multiple courses. For the student, you begin to see how courses and disciplines are interwoven across programs and majors.

First Year Experience (FYE) Living-Learning Community

The First Year Experience (FYE) Living Learning Community is designed to assist first-year students in their transition from high school to the UNCG community both academically and socially.

FYE is open to all first-year students and fosters a close-knit community for students to share and to grow together in leadership. Students will also be given tips, resources, and programmatic opportunities aimed at helping them to reach their academic goals.

Living together in Cone Residence Hall

Required Courses:

Fall CST 105: Introduction to Communication Studies
ISL 101: Connections, Collaborations, and Inquiry
