A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT GREENSBORO

The University of North Carolina at Greensboro was established by legislative enactment on February 18, 1891, and opened its doors on October 5, 1892.

The institution came into being as a direct result of the efforts of Dr. Charles Duncan McIver on behalf of the education of women. To Dr. McIver, more than any other individual, the university owes its foundation. He became its first president and served until his death in 1906.

Since its founding, the institution's name has been changed several times: 1891–1919—State Normal and Industrial College; 1919–1932—North Carolina College for Women; 1932–1963—the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina. In the 1963 General Assembly the name was changed to the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and by the same Act the institution became co-educational. In the fall of 1964 the first class of male students was admitted. In 1972 the General Assembly in special session merged all state-supported institutions of higher education into the University of North Carolina without changing the names of each campus. Thus, the University of North Carolina at Greensboro is a member of the 17-campus university.

From a student body of 223 and a faculty of 15 in 1892, the University of North Carolina at Greensboro has grown to a student body of 19,038 resident students—20% of whom are graduate students—and a total faculty of 1,138.

The University of North Carolina at Greensboro includes the following academic units: College of Arts and Sciences, Joseph M. Bryan School of Business and Economics, School of Education, School of Health and Human Sciences, Interdisciplinary College, Lloyd International Honors College, Joint School of Nanoscience and Nanoengineering, School of Nursing, and College of Visual and Performing Arts. The university offers six bachelor's degrees in 76 fields, master's degrees in a wide variety of concentrations, and doctoral degrees in 28 areas of study.

THE PROCESSIONAL

The procession is led by the Faculty Marshal and Mace Bearer and the academic banner bearers. The Assistant Chief Marshals enter next, leading the platform party, which includes the Chancellor; representatives of the Board of Trustees, the Alumni Association, and The University of North Carolina; the Commencement address speaker; the officers of the university; the bell ringers; the class speaker; the tassel turner, and the Chief Marshal. Graduating candidates enter next, followed by the faculty.

THE MACE

The Mace is a ceremonial insignia of the university in a tradition that dates back to antiquity. Hand-chased in sterling silver, it bears academic motifs depicting the history of the institution and is carried by the Faculty Marshal on official occasions. The Mace of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro was presented by the Class of 1926 to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of its graduation and the bicentennial of the nation. It was first carried at Commencement in 1978.

THE FACULTY MARSHAL

The Faculty Senate of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro adopted on November 3, 1999 a policy for appointing the Faculty Marshal. The Chancellor appoints the Faculty Marshal from among three nominees recommended by the Faculty Senate leadership (Chair, Chair-Elect, Secretary). The Faculty Marshal is a respected senior member of the faculty who has a consistent and continuous record of excellent teaching, scholarly achievements, and service to the university. Years in rank as Professor and years of employment at UNCG are considered. The term of appointment for a Faculty Marshal is five years. Duties include leading the academic procession during university ceremonies, carrying the university Mace, and membership in the Commencement Committee, which plans Commencement.

THE CHAIN-OF-OFFICE

The Chain-of-Office is worn by the Chancellor of the university on occasions when the Mace is carried. The ceremonial medallion, hand-chased in sterling silver, bears the seal of the university, and indicates that the Chancellor is the temporary embodiment of the authority vested in the institution. The Chain-of-Office of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro was presented by the Class of 1929 on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of its graduation and was worn by the Chancellor for the first time at the 1979 Commencement.

The Class of 1940 chose to complete the original design of the Chain-of-Office on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of its graduation. Each link of the sterling silver neck chain is an individually cast laurel leaf. The medallion clasp, also in sterling silver, bears the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina. The completed Chain-of-Office was worn by the Chancellor for the first time at the 1990 Commencement.

THE UNIVERSITY FLAG

As the university has evolved from the State Normal and Industrial School in 1891 to UNC Greensboro today, so has the University Flag. The flag bears the traditional colors of gold and white, which were first used in the Commencement ceremony of 1894, as well as navy, which was added as the third color in 1987. In 2018, the university completed a brand refresh with updates to its colors including new shades of navy and gold as well as adopting a fourth color, grey. In 2020, a revision of the University Flag was completed to include official university colors. The December 2020 Commencement marks the debut of this new flag. The University Seal, depicting the likeness of Minerva, appears on both sides of the flag.

THE ACADEMIC BANNERS

The Academic Banners represent the constituent parts of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro: the Graduate School, the College of Arts and Sciences, and the six professional schools—the Joseph M. Bryan School of Business and Economics, the School of Education, the School of Health and Human Sciences, the Joint School of Nanoscience and Nanoengineering, the School of Nursing, and the College of Visual and Performing Arts. The designs are unique to this university; the colors have historical association with the respective academic disciplines. The banners are a memorial to Marguerite Norman Felton, teacher of chemistry at the university from 1956 to 1979.

Over the years, several generations of college and school banners have existed. The current banners made their Commencement debut at the May 2010 ceremony.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY BELL

Following the benediction, the University Bell will ring in honor of the Graduates. The University Bell sounded the opening of the State Normal and Industrial College (now UNC Greensboro) on October 5, 1892. For forty years—until electric bells were installed—it marked the significant moments of the day. The University Bell hung from a belfry in the Anniversary Plaza from 1967 until 1987 when it was removed for the purpose of restoration. The Class of 1940, in celebration of the 50th anniversary of its graduation, commissioned the restoration of the University Bell.

UNIVERSITY MARSHALS

The Banner Bearers and escorts for all lines of march during Commencement are provided by the University Marshals, an academic honorary organization composed of full-time undergraduate students with academic averages of 3.65 or greater. These students may be recognized by the gold sashes that they wear during the ceremonies.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic costumes seem to have originated at the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge over 650 years ago. The colors of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro are gold, white, and blue, with gold and white used in the hood.

“THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER”

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light, What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming? Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight, O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?	And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air, Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there. O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

“THE UNIVERSITY SONG”

The Alma Mater

We raise our voices, let them swell
In a chorus loud and strong;
The rolling hills send back the sound
Of our triumphant song.
For in one great unbroken band
With loyal hearts and true,
Your sons and daughters stand and sing
University, to you.

BETH LEAVEL
DOCTOR OF LETTERS

Beth Leavel owns some of Broadway's biggest awards, including a Tony Award. Over the course of her brilliant acting career, she has become a Broadway legend.

Her kindness and gift for sharing her knowledge are well known. She coaches, mentors, and provides master classes regularly, elevating the potential of the next generations of acting students. She has visited the UNC Greensboro campus several times to give master classes and speak with UNC Greensboro acting students. At each master class, she tells her own story and offers tips and advice.

The most important thing the Raleigh native learned as a graduate student at UNCG? "That I was in the right place, and doing what I should be doing. To have that affirmed and confirmed, in the two years I was there, gave me the confidence to leap and take the next step."

After graduating from UNCG with her master's in fine arts in 1980, she headed to New York to build her acting career – and is now recognized as one of Broadway's greatest stars. In fact, she is currently preparing for the lead role of Miranda Priestly in "The Devil Wears Prada" in Chicago this summer, before a much-anticipated Broadway run.

Leavel's star turn in Broadway's "The Drowsy Chaperone" (2006-7) – in a role written especially for her – earned her a Tony Award as well as Drama Desk, NY Outer Critics Circle and L.A. Drama Critics awards.

She was nominated for a 2019 Tony, Drama Desk, Drama League and NY Outer Critics Circle award for her performance in the critically acclaimed Broadway show "The Prom."

She also received Tony, Drama Desk, and Outer Critics Circle nominations for her performance in "Baby It's You."

Other Broadway roles include Mrs. June Adams in "Bandstand," Emily in "Elf," Donna in "Mamma Mia!," Frau Blucher in "Young Frankenstein," Dorothy Brock in the revival of "42nd Street," Tess in the original company of "Crazy for You," Mrs. Bixby in "The Civil War," Ellie in Hal Prince's "Showboat," and Anytime Annie (her Broadway debut) in "42nd Street." She has numerous Off-Broadway, regional theater, commercials, and TV credits, including the final episode of ER and most recently "The Walking Dead" and "The Bite."

She has starred in 13 shows on Broadway – and counting.

The University of North Carolina at Greensboro bestows upon her one of its highest recognitions, an honorary degree of Doctor of Letters.

NANCY KING QUAINANCE

DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

The vice president of one of North Carolina's best hotel and restaurant companies started her career in the hospitality industry washing dishes at The Most Magical Place on Earth.

Nancy King Quaintance was just 15 years old when she took a job at Walt Disney World in Florida, working during summers and holiday breaks from Greensboro Day School.

Nancy eventually became a full-time Disney employee. At the time, she was the youngest person to complete Disney University's College Work Study Program.

She took hospitality seriously, studying culinary arts at Johnson & Wales in Providence, Rhode Island. She transferred to Cornell University in Ithaca, New York, graduating in 1982 with a degree in hotel administration.

Nancy worked as a teaching assistant to Tom Kelly, the department head for Cornell's food and beverage department. She soaked up real-world experience during her college years, working at the Cape Codder Hotel in Massachusetts; The Broadmoor, a five-star resort in Colorado Springs; and two summers for Marriott Corporation, where she helped pilot an IT program for management training in the sales and front office departments.

Nancy met Dennis Quaintance in 1979 when she took a Christmas break job at Franklin's Off Friendly. They were married in 1983, after Nancy finished college, and decided they wanted to be Greensboro's "Mr. & Mrs. Hotel-Restaurant."

That's exactly what they did.

Nancy spent five years with Marriott, two with Guest Quarters, and eight with John Q. Hammons Hotels as a regional director of sales.

She opened five Marriott and Embassy Suites hotels, managed sales departments, and conducted feasibility studies for new hotel development. Nancy co-authored a sales training program for Hammons — used in more than 40 hotels — and was president of the advertising cooperative for Embassy Suites Hotels in the Southeast.

In 1994, Nancy joined Quaintance-Weaver Restaurants and Hotels — the company Dennis started with partner Mike Weaver — in Greensboro. As vice president, she works with the communication and marketing team, the culinary team, the hotel sales team, and as a leadership team mentor.

Today, the QW portfolio includes Lucky 32 restaurants in Greensboro and Cary; the O.Henry Hotel and Green Valley Grill; the Proximity Hotel and Print Works Bistro. Both the O.Henry and Proximity are four-diamond hotels, and Proximity is certified LEED Platinum, the greenest and most environmentally-friendly hotel in America.

Nancy has shared her expertise with UNCG. She served on the committee that helped create an interdisciplinary program in Hospitality Management, which ultimately became a B.A., then a B.S., in Hospitality and Tourism Management.

She was a founding member of the Hospitality and Tourism Program Advisor Board. This partnership has benefited both UNCG and Quaintance-Weaver. The company's staff includes many UNCG students and alumni.

Nancy is a Spartan at heart. Her mother (Class of 1957) and grandmother (Class of 1930) are both alumni of the college now known as UNCG.

Nancy King Quaintance lives a life dedicated to service and excellence, consistent with the values embraced by the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, which bestows upon her an honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters.

DENNIS QUAINANCE

DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

Dennis Quaintance's story is that of self-made success.

It's the story of an 8-year-old entrepreneur selling rocks he found in the Nevada desert at his own roadside stand — "112 miles from the middle of nowhere," he says — who grew up to become CEO of a successful luxury hotel and restaurant company in Greensboro.

The youngest of five children, Dennis was born in Spirit Lake, Iowa, and raised out west in the rugged ranch country of Currant Creek, Nevada, and the Bitterroot Valley of Montana. Dennis learned the value of environmental conservation early. In Nevada, his rural one-room elementary school didn't have electricity or running water.

Dennis started his hospitality career at age 15, taking a job as a housekeeper's assistant at a hotel in Missoula, Montana, two years before graduating from Hellgate High School. He worked in leadership positions at luxury hotels throughout the west and south for the next four years.

Dennis moved east to Greensboro in 1979 to help a friend open a restaurant, "Franklin's Off Friendly." It was there he met Nancy King. They were married three years later, and the couple decided they wanted to be Greensboro's "Mr. & Mrs. Hotel-Restaurant."

Dennis teamed up with Mike Weaver, and in 1989 opened Lucky 32, a restaurant named for a racecar Dennis' father drove, a 1946 Mercury with Ford's famous flathead V-8 engine.

In the years since, Quaintance-Weaver Restaurants and Hotels have grown the business, which now includes two Lucky 32 Southern Kitchens, the 130-room O. Henry Hotel and its Green Valley Grill, and the 147-room Proximity Hotel with its Print Works Bistro.

It's a success story about more than personal success.

Dennis is an innovator and community leader who exemplifies values that parallel those of UNCG. He came from humble beginnings, worked hard and treated people right. He's a role model and inspiration to UNCG's Sustainable Hospitality and Tourism students.

Perhaps born from his conservation roots out west, Dennis and the QW team made history in 2007 with the four-diamond Proximity Hotel and Print Works Bistro — the first hotel and restaurant to gain Platinum certification with the US Green Building Council's Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design program.

Inside the company, QW emphasizes a culture of collaboration, ongoing education, and continuous improvement. The management team works in tandem to make strategic and operational decisions for the organization, and everyone plays a role on the leadership team.

And the company cares about Greensboro's history. The QW Craft Guild's full-time and adjunct artists and craftspeople make and restore items for the business.

In 2016, Dennis led the transition from traditional company ownership to 100 percent employee ownership, setting up a trust that provides retirement benefits for QW staff members.

In Dennis Quaintance's career of vision and service, he has earned a list of awards and accolades as long as that desolate stretch of desert highway in Nevada.

The University of North Carolina at Greensboro is proud to add one more, bestowing an honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters.

RECOGNITIONS AND HONORS

GRADUATION WITH HONORS

Graduation with honors for undergraduates is based on all courses (including the last semester's work) for which grades and grade points are given. The honors shown in the Commencement Program for May undergraduates, however, are based on work taken through Fall. Since spring semester grades had not been reported at the time this program was printed, some modifications in the tentative honors shown will have to be made following the recording of the spring semester 2022 grades. To be eligible for honors at the end of the senior year, a student must have completed at least 45 hours of work in residence at UNCG, not including hours for which credit and grade points have been received by special examinations.

Honors are awarded to graduating seniors as follows. The highest level is summa cum laude (with highest honor), maintaining a grade point average between 3.90–4.00 for all work taken at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. The next level, magna cum laude (with great honor), indicates an average of 3.70–3.89. The third level, cum laude (with honor), represents an achievement of 3.50–3.69.
